Should the Recorder be Impeached?

Last Tuesday evening the City Council discussed the high license question a little, and during the progress of the discussion the point was made that if the license fee was reduced the saloon-keeper would be enabled to sell a better quality of goods.

"But, would he?" asked a councillor.

"Who is supposed to test the quality of the goods in behalf of the Council?" in quired Councillor Argyle.

"The Marshal." said one.

"His Honor, Mayor Larson," said Joe Jensen,

Jensen,
"I protest!" cried City Recorder
Hughes. 'That's a part of my duties."
The Council then became curious in regard to the quality of the goods retailed by Messes. Rockhill and Jensen.
and called upon the Recorder for a report of his "wet tests".
Mr. Hughes had no report to make.
He confessed with a blush that he had "Been neglecting your duties, eh?"

said Mayor Larson in a severe tone but with a campaigs smile in each eye.
"Well—er—ah—y-e-s," said the now confused Recorder.
Upon due consideration, however, and with regard for the fact that Mr. Hughes
